A Cat and A Snack

The cat sat on a mat. The cat can see a snack.

The rat ran. The cat did not see the rat.

The rat hid in the hat. The cat sees the hat.

The bat flew fast. The cat did not see the rat and the bat.

The cat on the mat is sad.

The cat sat on a mat. The cat can see a snack.

The rat ran. The cat did not see the rat.

The rat hid in the hat. The cat sees the hat.

The bat flew fast. The cat did not see the rat and the bat.

The cat on the mat is sad.

Characters and Setting:

1. Who is the main character in the story?

2. Where does the story take place?

Plot and Sequence:

1. What does the cat see at the beginning of the story?

2. How does the rat move when it runs by the cat?

3. Where does the rat hide after running?

4. What does the cat see instead of the rat and the bat at the end of the story?

Problem and Solution:

1. What problem does the cat have with seeing the rat and the bat?

2. How does the story suggest that the cat might solve its problem of not seeing the rat and the bat?

Emotions and Reactions:

1. How might the cat feel when it does not see the rat and the bat?

2. How does the cat feel at the end of the story?

Personal Connections:

1. Have you ever tried to find something that was hiding, like the rat in the story? What happened?

2. Do you like playing games where you have to find things or hide? What games do you like?

Vocabulary and Language:

1. What does it mean when the story says, "The rat ran"?

2. What does it mean to "hid in the hat" in the story?