

Will Is Wet

Will sat on the wet mat. "Why am I wet?" he said. "I won't sit."

Will got up and ran to the hut.
Will's pal, Wit, was in the hut.

“Hi, Wit! I need help!” Will said.

“Why is the mat wet?”

Wit looked at the mat.

“I see why the mat is wet. I will fix it. You won’t get wet,” said Wit.

Will sat on the wet mat. "Why am I wet?" he said. "I won't sit."

Will got up and ran to the hut. His pal, Wit, was in the hut.

"Hi, Wit! I need help!" Will said. "Why is the mat wet?"

Wit looked at the mat.

"I see why the mat is wet. I will fix it. You won't get wet," said Wit.

Characters and Setting:

1. Who is the main character in the story?
2. Where does the story take place?

Plot and Sequence:

1. What happens to Will at the beginning of the story?
2. Where does Will go after he gets up from the mat?
3. Who does Will ask for help when he reaches the hut?
4. What does Wit do when he sees the wet mat?
5. How does Wit plan to fix the problem of the wet mat?

Problem and Solution:

1. What problem does Will face at the beginning of the story?
2. How does Wit help solve Will's problem?

Emotions and Reactions:

1. How might Will feel when he realizes he is wet?
2. How does Will feel when Wit offers to fix the problem?

Personal Connections:

1. Have you ever needed help from a friend to solve a problem? What happened?
2. Do you like helping your friends when they have problems? How do you feel when you help them?

Vocabulary and Language:

1. What does it mean when Will says, "I won't sit here"?
2. What does the word "hut" mean in the story?